Dear EVA-participant,

welcome to EVA2010! I am glad for being able to welcoming you in the Frauenkirche of Dresden.

By the reconstruction of this church we have overcome destruction and therefore have given a sign of reconciliation. Enemies have become friends and have achieved great things together. The spirit and the tradition of this special place have led us to create EVA of this year as a Peace Academy. For that, we need You and Your zest for action, Your thirst for knowledge and Your rich imagination! Each one of us carries a great potential to transform reconciliation and peace into reality. Let us realize the days of Whitsun in Dresden together and collect impulses and possibilities to avoid injustice and hurt in this world. Let us bundle this knowledge and carry it out into the world.

Thank You very much for your commitment to EVA2010!

Kind regards

Jochen Bohl

Regional bishop of the Evangelic-Lutheran established regional church of Saxony

EVA IN CONCERT

1a

This is a real Highlight of the Peace Academy! 20 years after the reunification of Germany and 5 years after the completing to rebuild the Frauenkirche five bands and musicians meet at EVA for a special and symbolic act of reconciliation. The young and very talented Singer-Songwriters from England and Germany want to set an exceptional sign with their concert and would like to present a song especially created for and with participants of the Peace Academy.

Sarah Brendel, Dresden

Sarah Brendel was part of the project „Zeichen der Zeit“ (signs of the time) with Xavier Naidoo. She is playing regularly in Slovenia, the Czech Republic, Scandinavia and the U.S.A. Already her first Single jumped into the Top 100 in Germany. Sarah Brendel moved 2009 to Saxony and is, together with her husband, trying to institutionalize a project open for young people who are interested in music in a castle close to Dresden.

Samuel Anthes, Emden

The songs of Samuel Anthes touch heart and soul because of their intensive lyrics clear references to believing in God. Anthes won diverse radio awards and works on his new CD at the moment.

The title sequence, London

The band from London has gained quite some reputation during the last years within the independent music scene in England: Typical British Folk-Pop mixes with fantastic melodies and an unbelievable thickness of musical minimalistics. Their song “Dinosaurs” was developed while travelling through China and therefore wishes for the freedom of speech, opinion and liberty as a basis to society. The music magazine Intro sees the band as a shooting star of Independent music.

Sofia Stark, Stuttgart

Together with her band „Debbie rockt“ 18 year old Sofia Stark was able to celebrate quite some success. She won the prize of “Jugend musiziert” (youth plays music) and was happy to gain Top 30 Chart entries... but still the young musician experiences her own and personal “reconstruction” as a singer while finishing High School. With 17 she moved away from the strings of show business to create her OWN songs and some serious music.

Lilly Among Thornes, Würzburg

Lilly Among Thornes is from Bavaria and only 18 years old but for some critiques symbolizes the new Janis Joplin. She won the competition “EIGENSINNICH” of the evangelic youth and is a real insider tip.

11:30 p.m.

EVA LOVES her enemies and experiences a spiritual end to the day

1b

WHITSUN, May 23rd

11 p.m. EVA CELEBRATES Whitsun with a service and the youth pastor of Dresden, Georg Zimmermann and the pastor of the Frauenkirche, Sebastian Feydt and many others 1a

1:30 p.m. EVA MARVELS and ask you about your workshop-conclusions 2

3:30 p.m. EVA COUNTS on criticism and suggestions for a perfect EVA2012 using various methods 2

5:30 p.m. EVA HEALS some of your wounds on a path of spiritual discovery through the Frauenkirche and shows you unknown sides of the church and maybe even in you 1

8 p.m. EVA DANCES, tastes and invites you to international traditions of celebration 2

11:30 p.m. EVA WISHES for you and herself shining eyes at the spiritual end to the day in the tradition of Taizé 1

WHIT MONDAY, May 24th

10:15 a.m. EVA SENDS all participants off to all corners of the globe with a closing event and the youth pastor of Saxony Tobias Bilz and the pastor of the Frauenkirche Sebastian Feydt 2

Workshop programme

Language against violence

How easy it is to show moral courage and which steps are necessary to keep from getting into danger oneself will be shown in this workshop named "language against violence".

Dirk Heinrichs (Sprache gegen Gewalt e.V., author, Köln) 4

Domestic violence: women, men and children as actor and victim

Domestic violence can occur to all – women and men, children and parents, healthy and sick. This workshop wants to illuminate, share own experiences and – through an open discussion – search for solutions against violence at home. 4

Astrid v. Friesen (educationalist and therapist of trauma and gestalt, Dresden/Freiberg)

Violent conflicts – features and causes

All over the world, conflicts are tried to be solved using violence. Why? This workshop is trying to help with that: typical features and courses of violent conflicts are being looked at using historical, political, cultural and economical information. Steffen Horn (educationalist, Dresden) 4

Through war to peace? – When young Israelis meet young Germans... 5

How German and Israeli youth meet each other and what they feel about it you can experience in this interactive workshop. German-Israeli exchange programmes of the rectory of youth in Saxony will be presented and await new ideas. The priority of national consciousness, identity and religion concerning war and peace will be questioned critically and curiously.

Caroline Richter (pedagogue of religion, Dresden) 5

Learning democracy – Neonazism

Every year the people of Dresden commemorate the victims of the bombing of their city in February 1945 – at the same time thousands of Neonazis march through the town. What can we do against it?

Susanne Feustel (scholar of politics, Leipzig)

WortWerkstattSuchen - a writing factory

On Pentecost strange things happen. Strangers talk and get together and to believing. Starting from the story of Pentecost and under professional guidance you will think creatively, may get to believing and most important of all – write.

Tobias Petzold (pedagogue of religion, education consultant of the protestant youth of Saxony)

Living with people with handicaps

In the workshop questions about meeting people with and without a handicap will be discussed. Which prejudices exist? What means meeting disabled people for me and how can I handle this experience?

Robert Neumann and Team

(Aktion Sühnezeichen Friedensdienste, Dresden)

Bullying and social exclusion – what can I do?

Bullying and social exclusion is aching pain of the soul. The workshop shows how one can handle bullying and which possibilities there are to help others. After a short theoretical introduction you can experience bullying practically and thereafter discuss and search for your own solutions to escape these circles. Mario M. Schmidt (social trainer and school pedagogue, Fürth)

Drum workshop

In this workshop you will get to know the techniques to play various drums. As soon as the collective groove carries the group we will improvise and give way to our creativity. No forehand familiarity is needed.

Marius Hawlitzky (Die Trommelwerstatt, Dresden)

Graffitiworkshop

After a short look into the history of Graffiti and a tiny discussion about the legality and illegality of this art we move directly to the cans.

Christian Höhn (Graffiti artist and rapper, Dresden)

Impro theater

The actors of this workshop will show some of their talents on stage but above all they will strengthen their own social competences and call up presence, trust, spontaneity and readiness to take a risk.

Andreas Schulze (Dipl. pedagogue and actor, Erfurt)

To send a signal - together

With acrylic colours and other material we will create a piece of art - together; our symbol for non-violence!

Karolin Lode (art therapist, Dresden)

Looking at EVA differently

We will look through the (camera) lenses and we will create a presentation. This workshop is for people who would like to have in- and outside images, who enjoy experiments and who like to take photos (please bring your own camera) and also have fun writing.

Jan Weichold (Grafiker, Dresden)

Dresden´s heroes – a town rallye about the political changes of 1989

With this workshop you will follow the tracks of the people who in 1989 stood up for a united Germany. A rallye will lead you to the important places of Dresden where people gathered and showed their opinion publicly. Steffi Unger (Politischer Jugendring Dresden e.V.)

Dancing Theatre „war - never again“

The place of quietness - the lower church of the Frauenkirche - will be a stage for dancing during this workshop. Talk through your body, your facial expressions and gestures about the history of the chapels and their destruction, faith and hope.

Eila Schwedland & Team (dancer, Palucca School Dresden)

Alles klar?!

Versicherungen sind seltsam: Man zahlt für etwas in der Hoffnung, es möglichst nie zu brauchen. Und wer gibt schon gerne Geld für etwas aus, das er eigentlich gar nicht will?

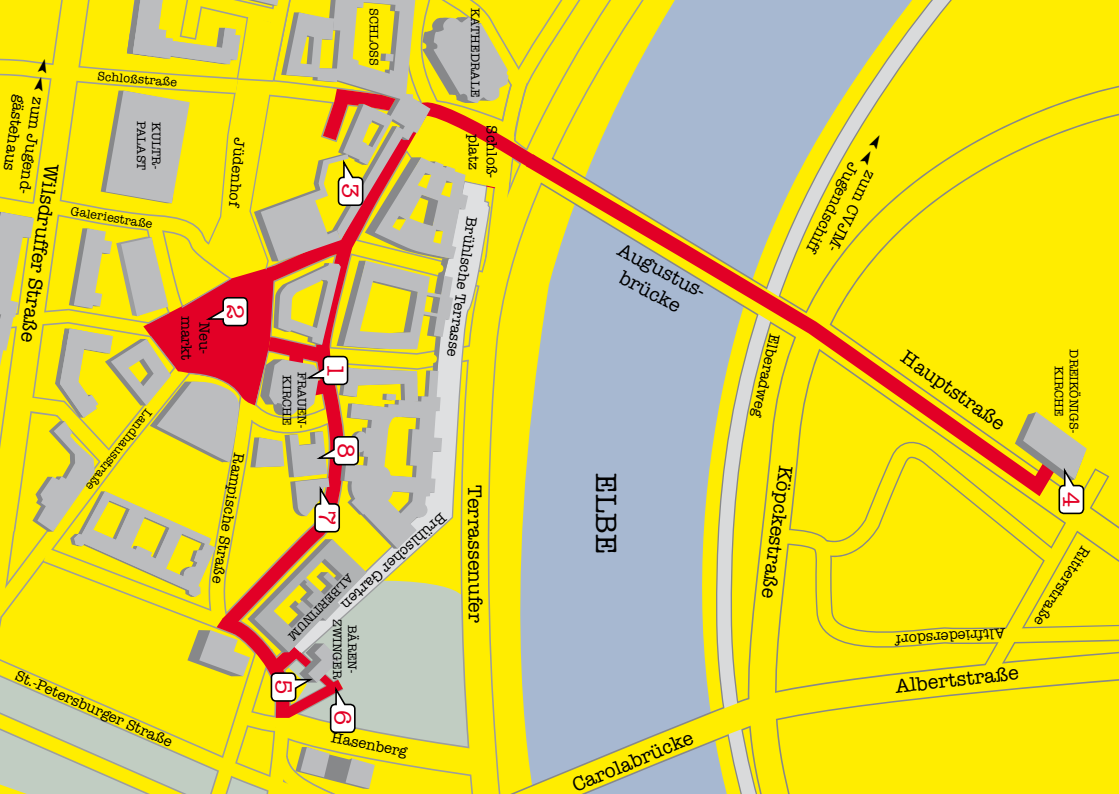

Wie wichtig Vorsorge und Schutz für junge Menschen im Alltag ist, zeigt sich spätestens im Ernstfall.
